

IN MEMORIAM
OF BROTHER RUSSELL

---

Beloved one!

Beyond earth's sunshine and its rain,
Beyond all weariness and pain,
Thou art at rest.

E'en though e morn our loss, we joy to feel
Thou art so blest.

O, faithful one!

Now privileged to see unfold
God's purpose in the scroll unrolled
By Christ's own hand;
And has made report: "I've done as Thou,
Lord, didst command."

O, radiant one!

Along the dark and narrow way
Thy faithfulness cast back a ray
Of hope and cheer;
For thou so joyously thy cross didst bear,
With scarce a tear.

O, blessed one!

We pray for strength to do God's will,
To wait and suffer and be still,
As thou hast done,
Nor faint, nor fear, but still run on until
The prize is won
